Who are we?

Times are continuously changing, but you can always count on Continia. Count on us to dig in, understand your challenges, and engineer solutions - available to the international market through our local partners.

Our intelligent solutions add significant value to people and businesses by optimizing two of the most valuable commodities: time and data.

We get time to work for you by developing practical, reliable, easy-to-use, and price-competitive software solutions. Continia solutions automate and digitalize workflows in the backbone of most companies: the financial department.

With more than 30 years of experience, we know that you can't buy back time. Don't waste it - spend it wisely.

To us, time is everything. Our clients count on our solutions and support for their businesses to run smoothly and seamlessly every day - that's our promise to you. We also ensure we can count on each other as colleagues and fellow Continians.

All Continians believe that time is the most valuable asset in business and life. Ask us what we do and whether you should work with us. We'll say:

It's About Time!
